

GenMig Dialogue Series 2024 programme

The GenMig partner dialogue series explores various pressing gender and migration issues, gathering insights from Member States, UN agencies, non-governmental organizations, the private sector and research institutions on the challenges and solutions to support gender equality in migration. Participation is by invitation only and extended to the GenMig network of partners.

**Please note the time is subject to change based on the geography of those who register. Additional sessions for different time zones can also be scheduled if there is sufficient interest.

Supporting women migrants' entrepreneurship in migration and displacement settings	Wednesday 21 February 11:00-12:00 ET/ 17:00-18:00 CET	This session will examine the opportunities and challenges for supporting entrepreneurship of women migrants, including in displacement settings. It will explore the potential of diverse support interventions, such capacity-development, micro-credit and support by the diaspora. Register here on Zoom.
Enhancing protection of women domestic migrant workers	Thursday 2 May 9:00-10:00 EST/ 15:00-16:00 CEST	This session will discuss avenues to improve the protection of women domestic migrant workers, including community practices and advocacy efforts among migrant women themselves. Register here on Zoom.
Improving gender responsiveness of migration policies	Thursday 6 June 8:30 – 9:30 EST/ 14:30 – 15:30 CEST	This session will explore avenues to improve the gender-responsiveness of migration policies, including lessons learned and best practices identified by the IOM team working on the Migration Governance Indicators (MGI). Register here on Zoom.
Leveraging digital technologies for the empowerment of women migrants and displaced women: Challenges and opportunities	Wednesday 27 June 11:00-12:00 EST/ 17:00-18:00 CEST	This session will explore the barriers and opportunities for digital tech to be leveraged for the benefit of women migrants and displaced women and potential solutions, in light of their current usage of digital tech and the challenges posed by tech developments. Register here on Zoom.
Aspirations of young women migrants and displaced persons: Enhancing support through policy and programmatic interventions	Wednesday 4 September 9:00-10:00 EST/ 15:00-16:00 CEST	This dialogue will focus on rethinking the support provided to young women migrants and those who are displaced, taking into account their aspirations and agency for achieving a better and meaningful future for themselves and their families. Register here on Zoom.
Gender-responsive regular migration pathways as an adaptation to the implications of climate change	Wednesday 6 November 8:00-9:00 EST/ 14:00-15:00 CET	This session will explore solutions for gender-responsive regular migration pathways in response to the (slow-onset) consequences of climate change, discussing innovative solutions already adopted, gaps to be addressed and the progress made. Register here on Zoom.